

INSTITUTE ON DISABILITY / UCED
A University Center for Excellence on Disability

ARTWORK RELEASE FORM

The Institute on Disability (IOD) at the University of New Hampshire (UNH) was established in 1987 to provide a coherent university-based focus to improve knowledge, policy, and practice related to the lives of persons with disabilities and their families. The Institute, together with the Division of Genetics and Child Development and the Department of Pediatrics at Dartmouth Medical School; the Institute for Health, Law, and Ethics at Pierce Law Center; and the Center on Community Economic Development and Disability at Southern New Hampshire University, comprise New Hampshire's University Center for Excellence in Disability (UCED). For more information, please visit our website at www.iod.unh.edu.

Thank you for your submission of artwork to the University of New Hampshire's Institute on Disability (IOD). Please review the following terms and conditions carefully, insert complete and accurate information in the space provided, and return both pages to the IOD at:
